Why Work for Brock TV

BrockTV is your student-funded and student-staffed online video channel dedicated to providing students with news, sports, entertainment, culture and arts programming. BrockTV provides staff and volunteers with professional, skill-building and leadership opportunities in a welcoming, creative atmosphere.

BTV was founded in 2005 by a group of film and communications students who were looking to gain hands-on audio and video production experience. With student funding (approximately $250,000/year) BTV now employs 12-16 students (per year) who produce year-round content for the Brock community. Overall BTV provides the student body with a variety of creative material through both innovative and informative content.

Job Function

Each Producer is responsible for work downloaded to them by a Senior Producer in conjunction with the Executive Director. They report firstly to the Executive Director. Keeping up to date with knowledge of all aspects of production is a must. Responsible for taking rough edit to fine cut status, including, but not limited to, third party graphics, final audio mix, export, upload and archive. They are also responsible for promoting contests, and campaigns as needed by BrockTV. They will do this through social networking platforms and therefore hold an extensive knowledge of such. This position must attend weekly Production Meetings.

Responsibility 1: Programming:

- Maintain a high level of contextual understanding of BrockTV's mandate for Brock University-related content
- Develop and maintain high-quality programming for weekly content while following both the BrockTV and BUSU policies and procedures
- Perform all other duties reasonably assigned by the Executive Director

Responsibility 2: Production:
